Livloves2read: Silver Skin is a weird but wonderful fantasy book about past and present times

May 04, 2015 The first thing I had to do after finishing Joan Lennon's Silver Skin, was to look up Skara Brae. Like her character Rab, I learned a bit about it at Rab lives in the distant future, in a world where space is at a premium due to population pressures and in which status is expressed by how much room you have to live in.

Silver Skin is a weird but wonderful fantasy book about past and present times. It all starts when the main character, Rab, receives a piece of homework to do.
